

House Resolution No. 4252

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives recognize marriage as one of the cornerstones of a healthy and vibrant society; and

Whereas, the members now pause to recognize Ernest Earl and Neva Jane Young, of Dexter, Missouri, who are observing their sixty-fifth wedding anniversary this year; and

Whereas, Ernest Earl Young took the hand of his lovely bride, Neva Jane Causbie, on June 28, 1942, during a solemn ceremony held in Dexter, Missouri; and

Whereas, Ernest Earl Young is a retired business owner, having been in the real estate business for ten years and the drying-cleaning business for twenty-five years; and

Whereas, Neva Jane Young is also a retired business owner and former seamstress, whose work was admired and treasured by hundreds of people over the years, and she holds the distinction of being named “Best Mom of the Year” several times; and

Whereas, Ernest Earl Young held various positions as a church member and elder of the First church of the Nazarene, to which he and his wife have been members since 1945, and being a gifted harmonica player, he entertains at the local senior citizen center; and

Whereas, the union of Ernest Earl and Neva Jane Young has been blessed with four sons, Earl Dennis Young, Gary Lee Young, Chris Alan Young, and Michael Dean Young, ten grandchildren and four great-grandchildren, all of whom have the abundant love and devotion of Ernest Earl and Neva Jane Young:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to extend our sincerest congratulations to Ernest Earl and Neva Jane Young and the glorious occasion of their sixty-fifth wedding anniversary and to wish them health and happiness in their years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution Ernest Earl and Neva Jane Young, of Dexter, Missouri.
